Susan Nanik is Manager of Human Resources at the National Joint Powers Alliance®. Susan brought her education and experience in Insurance, Office Management and Finance to NJPA. Susan has continued her education and most recently received her Professional in Human Resources (PHR) status through the Human Resource Certification Institute. She also served as an elected official as Board Clerk of Bullard Township for 14 years.

Susan works to maximize strategic use of human resources to benefit NJPA. She is committed to ensuring human resource programs and services support the needs of our employees while meeting the goals set forth in the NJPA Business Plan.

Susan lives with her family on a farm 12 miles north of Staples where she enjoys biking, gardening, swimming and floating the Crow Wing River and relaxing in the great outdoors.
