

NJPA Announces National Contract Award to Progressive

Staples, MN – November 5, 2008 – The National Joint Powers Alliance® (NJPA) is pleased to announce its vendor partnership contract for personal automobile insurance to Progressive. This program is available to all employees of all NJPA Members

Progressive Casualty Insurance Company is fast becoming one of the largest personal lines insurance companies in the United States. Progressive currently provides insurance coverage for more than 10 million people with annualized premium in excess of 14 billion dollars.

Some of the reasons NJPA chose Progressive:

Premium—Progressive's rating and premiums are very competitive.

Policy Service and Management 24/7—Policyholders can log in to update information, make payments, vehicle recall information and more.

Online Claims Reporting 24/7—Policyholders can log in to report auto accidents and glass claims in minutes. For glass claims, you can show what type of glass damage occurred using their unique visual reporting system. For claims other than glass, you may have the option to schedule an appointment at a claims service center or a network repair shop when you report your claim.

Also included in the Progressive/NJPA Agreement is the ability to obtain a quote for your boat, motorcycle or RV. Six Minutes is about all it will take. Have your drivers' license and vehicle identification number ready and start clicking. For more information about this contract please go to www.njpacoop.org/rmp

About Progressive:

Progressive began in 1937, and have worked hard to build a superior proposition for auto insurance consumers through competitive pricing and by continuously improving products and services. Today, Progressive offers competitive rates and 24-hour, in-person and online services to all drivers throughout the United States.
