

Well designed and furnished schools increase students' attention, which improves their ability to learn. Whether you need assistance designing classrooms, selecting furniture for your cafeteria or anything in between, School Specialty's Furniture and Equipment team can help. Our knowledgeable and experienced professionals will help you create environments that enhance every child's learning experience-and fit your budget. From student and teacher desks and chairs, cafeteria tables, outdoor furniture, computer workstations to furniture and equipment for the arts, School Specialty has everything you need.

NJPA has awarded a competitively bid, nationally leveraged contract to School Specialty for Classroom & Educational Furniture and Accessories.

Providing
NJPA
Members...

- The most complete and comprehensive line of furniture and equipment
- Over 300 trained sales professionals strategically located across the United States to assist in determining products that best fit a school's needs and budget
- One step project management assistance for new construction, building additions or facility renovations
- Customer Care organization trained to respond to all questions
- Competitive pricing on all orders large or small
- Regional distribution centers to shorten delivery time

Scott Kurtzman
skurtzman@schoolspecialty.com
(419) 589-1906
www.schoolspecialty.com/njpa