

Dr. Chad Coauette

Chad has spent the last 15 years working within the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system with experience at Northland Community and Technical College, Anoka Technical College, and Alexandria Technical and Community College. In his most recent role as Dean of Customized Training and Health Divisions at Alexandria Technical and Community College, he provided leadership and management for the Customized Training Center and all health related programs. Specific attention was given to the design and delivery of innovative programming, collaboration, partnerships, grant opportunities, outreach and continuing education initiatives that serve to build and sustain the future workforce.

Chad currently serves as:

- A Member of Douglas County Habitat for Humanity Board of Directors
- A Member of the Minnesota Precision Manufacturing Association Board of Directors
- The Vice Chair of the Minnesota Precision Manufacturing Association Educational Foundation
- A Member of the Executive Team for the Inclusion Network

Chad has a PhD in Educational Leadership from the University of North Dakota, and also holds Bachelors and Masters of Science Degrees from the University of North Dakota in Industrial Technology. Chad and his wife Dawn live in Alexandria, MN with their two children Kamryn (age 10) and Cyler (age 7).